

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Beatfrees Community Platform

This document outlines the terms and conditions for using the Beatfrees community platform hosted at community.beatfrees.com and owned and managed by the Beatfrees group of companies (Beatfrees Consulting Ltd, Beatfrees Arts Ltd, Beatfrees Research Ltd.)

WHAT WE EXPECT FROM YOU:

- To use the platform to be amazing people and do amazing things together
- To make the most of all the opportunities put your way
- To exercise your influence in the opportunities on the platform
- To communicate with Beatfrees as owner and manager of the platform on how services could be improved
- To take ownership over the data you provide us on the platform, to understand your user rights and to exercise what you want us to know, and what you want to be public, or not
- To embody the principle value of Beatfrees: Be Free.
- To respect other people's opinions, privacy, human rights by not engaging in any forms of bullying, prejudice or hate on the platform.
- To protect everyone's individual preferences and not post, write or communicate anything which may be understood to be offensive
- To not use the platform to communicate with other members of the community regarding anything which breaks the law in the UK

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US:

- To strive to make the platform for people to be free, exercise influence and have their say
- To review all content published on the platform by staff and users to ensure that it fits within these guidelines
- To ensure all data submitted is stored in line with Beatfrees Data policy and the GDPR
- To ensure that all data is used in line with your consents as outlined on the platform
- To ensure that all reports of use of the platform which deviates from this agreement will be dealt with promptly and in line with this user guide

Failure to abide by these terms of use will result in being banned from using the platform and accessing opportunities put out by Beatfrees at any time.